Class Owls
At the end of the week we will be sending home a class owl with one child. Please can you look after it and return it after the holidays. There is a book with the owl for you to add any pictures of your adventures.

Learning Diaries
Thank you for returning the children's Learning Diaries. The children have really enjoyed talking to their friends about what they have been doing at home. Please do return the Diaries each week even if you haven't had a chance to put anything in them. It will enable us to add more photographs. If you are unsure as to how to use the diary please ask a member of Nursery staff.

Allergies
We are having marshmallows and hot chocolate at our pyjama party so please can you inform us if your child has any allergies.
