HAPPY

HELPFUL

HARDWORKING

Whitehill Primary School

6th March 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Your child will have come home with a book called You Are Awesome by Matthew Syed. This has been written for children aged of 9 – 12. Matthew Syed is a British Olympic table tennis player who reached the heights of his field based, on his self-admittance, on some but limited “natural talent” but succeeded through sheer hard work and continual determination. He has become a journalist, speaker and author regarding the importance of application and positivity in sport, education and life.

This books a gift from the school for your child, to keep, for them to enjoy and to help support them in the forthcoming months including the SATs and transition to secondary school.

Please support and encourage your child to read and enjoy this. The text is accessible and has stories that relate to young people. It is a book that can be read together with your child and they will enjoy discussion with you regarding different sections and chapters.

As we talked to the Year 6's recently, they are awesome!

Thank you for your ongoing partnership and support of our young people.

Regards,

Mr Lowing
